Yea, it is a dream-world, where in all women are beautiful, all life is thrilling. Even their dull names indicate their mediocrity, and highlight the contrast between the epic, mysterious culture of the early Bible and the mundane, monotonous, predictable culture of the capitalist present. Moreover, I am poor compared to Paris Hilton and Lindsay Lohan and many others; and despite my plastic surgery, they are still prettier! Do I want them to repent and give their lives away for Jesus? True and purest material abundance can deliver us from evil; only science and reason can deliver us from scarcity.
