Still, there is no excuse for using a spoon to spank a two year-old child. I've discussed my thoughts on corporal punishment in these older stories on Kate smacking her kids.
(This was before I had my Amish wooden spoons - which are FABULOUS, BTW This is CHILD ABUSE, plain and simple.

I disagree that all religions reject critical thinking, and suggest that you can only make such a statement about a religion you have followed. I could have sat there for hours.
He works in logging, and he said he worries about what would happen if his wife is sentenced to a long prison term.
KidswerebeingfilmedbyTLCfromtheageof3on. My mother threatened me with the wooden spoon when I was kid. They get hurt, then confused, and while they do make the connection between the bad behavior and the pain of the punishment, they feel unloved afterwards and unable to trust their parents. So I've had lots of conversations with families about spanking.
