Most of the people who buy storage auctions for a living are not happy about this. Sorting Your Storage Auction Winnings You need a place to sort where you can be comfortable and take your time. It turned out there was nothing there of any value. You may have seen my eBay infomercial on TV—I've been helping people make money. The idea here is to discourage buyers who overpay from coming back, and to get buyers with limited funds to spend their money on poor value units so they don't bid on later units. When it comes time to start the sorting process, wear plastic or rubber gloves, pants, and a face mask. I'll write an article about specific bidding techniques in the future. This is like assuming a Budweiser box in a storage unit contains beer. But with his first year, he bought 10 to 15 units per month. Remember, you won't make a killing on every unit, but in time you'll make some money on most of .
