Samuel Pepys described the inn as the heart of England. Real ales and cocktails served. Ghouls and ghosts. There have been many sightings here including hooded monks, an old couple looking out of the upper windows, strange light effects and a ghostly black cat who haunts the upstairs area known as the Solar Bar. By the s, the handsome place was surrounded by buildings and courted a celebrity crowd.

Refurbished to a good standard with comfy cushions, soft ambient lighting and a wide selection of wines beers and spirits. A List.
